

Foundation Training Job Description

Grade	F1
Placement	Endocrinology
Department	The Endocrinology Department
The type of work to expect and learning opportunities	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • To gain experience in Endocrinology history taking, and examination • To improve communication skills and develop team work • To master basic medical techniques • To learn about common Endocrinology emergencies and their management • To build upon undergraduate education and FY1 experience • To gain experience and familiarity in dealing with a wide variety of medical conditions • To develop the skills of history taking, physical examination, appropriate investigation and rational prescribing • To master several basic medical techniques • To improve communication skills with patients, relatives and colleagues • To develop skills in managing time and conflicting priorities At the end of the four month period the FY1 will have obtained experience in the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Diagnosing a wide range of common conditions • Treatment of a wide range of common conditions • Management of a wide range of common conditions After 4 months they should have done the required DOPS, CBD etc. and should be confident in doing slit lamp examination and should know how to manage the common eye problems.

Where the placement is based	Hull Royal Infirmary
Main duties of the placement	Ward work
Typical working pattern in this placement	Typical working pattern in this post e.g. ward rounds, clinics, theatre sessions.
Employer	Hull and East Yorkshire Hospitals NHS Trust

It is important to note that this description is a typical example of your placement and may be subject to change.