

Foundation Training Job Description

Grade	F2
Placement	Emergency Medicine
The type of work to expect and learning opportunities	Exposure to the care of the large case mix that presents to the ED. Learning opportunities will include many practical procedures and will include the management and resuscitation of the acutely ill patient including multiple trauma.
Where the placement is based	Emergency Department
Educational and Clinical Supervisor(s) for the placement	Mr G Kitching, J Bulman, D Maart and J Rowe
Main duties of the placement	This is a teaching attachment with potential to gain experience of a wide range of procedural skills including many core procedures. Duties include ED based tasks such as the assessment, review and development of management plans for patients.
Typical working pattern in this placement	Regular ED based work which includes evening and night shifts.
Employer	York Teaching Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust

It is important to note that this description is a typical example of your placement and may be subject to change.