

Foundation Training Job Description

Grade	F2
Placement	Micro / GUM / Public Health
The type of work to expect and learning opportunities	Exposure to care of medical patients. Management of the acutely ill medical patient.
Where the placement is based	Micro / GUM / Public Health
Educational and Clinical Supervisor(s) for the placement	Dr A Anderson, Dr I Fairley, Dr S Padfield
Main duties of the placement	This is a teaching attachment with potential to gain experience of a wide range of practical procedures including many core procedures. Duties include clinic based tasks as well as laboratory procedures, patient assessment, review and management of both acute and long term conditions.
Typical working pattern in this placement	Regular ward and clinic based work which includes evening and night shifts.
Employer	York Teaching Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust

It is important to note that this description is a typical example of your placement and may be subject to change.