

Person Specification for Recruitment to the Academic Research Foundation Programme within the Yorkshire and the Humber Foundation School

This person specification is in addition to the national person specification for foundation doctors, issued on the UKFPO website

Academic Research Skills & Knowledge
Demonstrates knowledge of the role academic research plays in clinical medical training.	Pre-employment Screening/Interview.
Can demonstrate an understanding of the different aspects and types of academic research undertaken by clinical academic researchers within a University Medical School environment.	Application/Pre-employment Screening/Interview.
Can demonstrate an appreciation of the key skills and qualities required by academic researchers in order to undertake scientific research.	Application/Pre-employment Screening/Interview.
Can demonstrate an awareness of the key principles and processes that academic researchers need to adhere to e.g. ethics, research governance and good practice.	Application/Pre-employment Screening/Interview.
Can demonstrate a desire and drive to take Part in academic research.	Application/Pre-employment Screening Interview.