

Foundation Training Job Description

Grade	F2
Placement	General Internal Medicine
Department	General Internal Medicine
The type of work to expect and learning opportunities	Day to day management of patients with wide variety of general medical needs, specifically assisting with the management of patients under the care of the metabolic, Respiratory and GI teams. In addition to consultant led ward rounds the FY2 will be expected to see patients independently including the initial assessment and management of unwell patients on the ward. There are opportunities to attend outpatient clinics.
Where the placement is based	Ward 6
Educational and Clinical Supervisor(s) for the placement

Main duties of the placement	Care of patients on Ward 6. Ward 6 shares beds with other teams, specifically Elderly Medicine, and it is expected that in addition to managing their own patients the trainee will assist with the care of other patients on the ward when necessary. Day to day care of all patients on the ward (admission clerking and assessment, daily or more frequent clinical review, legible notes in medical records, prescribing, requesting investigations and actioning results), Ward Rounds, Discharge planning and e-discharge notifications, Maintaining patient safety by abiding by the Medicines Code, Infection Prevention procedures and Medical Equipment/Devices policy, On-Call responsibilities (nights & lates), Clerking of new admissions and other ward-based duties as above. The FY2 will, on occasion be required to cross cover other wards / specialties as the rota dictates.
Typical working pattern in this placement	Full shift system including evenings and nights and weekends. On call work is based on AAU.
Employer	Airedale NHS Foundation Trust

It is important to note that this description is a typical example of your placement and may be subject to change.