

Foundation Training Job Description

Grade	F1
Placement	Paediatrics
Department	The Department provides a comprehensive Health Service for Paediatrics and the newborn to a catchment population of approximately 36,800 (age 0-16). General and specialist services are provided with tertiary links with Sheffield and Leeds. The Maternity Unit and the Neonatal Unit are both in the Department of Family Services. The Department provides a comprehensive Health Service for Paediatrics and the newborn to a catchment population of approximately 36,800 (age 0-16).
The type of work to expect and learning opportunities	The duties of the post include examining and writing up out-patient and in-patient emergency cases with responsibility for special investigation and obtaining blood and other samples and transfusions. There is also, however, a morning phlebotomy service in operation. The duties also include assisting and performing minor and some other operations under supervision, with emergency duties. There is also active encouragement for producing clinical papers.
Where the placement is based	Diana, Princess of Wales Hospital
Educational and Clinical Supervisor(s) for the placement	Dr H Al-Moasseb
Main duties of the placement	The postholder's primary responsibility is the day-to-day care of ward patients under the care of the Consultants in his/her team. The incumbent will receive instruction in procedures & help with management from senior colleagues.
Typical working pattern in this placement	Monday to Friday 09:00 -17:00 plus out of hours
Employer	Northern Lincolnshire and Goole NHS Foundation Trust

It is important to note that this description is a typical example of your placement and may be subject to change.