

Foundation Training Job Description

Grade	F1
Placement	General Medicine/Respiratory
Department	There are currently 3 Consultant Physicians with a special interest in Respiratory Medicine. The current facilities to support the Respiratory Medicine service include access to in-patient beds on an acute medical ward, video bronchoscopy sessions in the new Endoscopy Suite, and a Lung Function Laboratory with technical support staff. There are three full time Respiratory Specialist Nurses and dedicated Lung Cancer Specialist Nurses.
The type of work to expect and learning opportunities	The duties of the post include examining & writing up out-patient & inpatient emergency cases with responsibility for special investigation & obtaining blood, other samples & transfusions. There is also a morning phlebotomy service in operation. The duties also include assisting & performing minor operations under supervision, with emergency duties. There is also active encouragement for producing clinical papers.
Where the placement is based	Diana, Princess of Wales Hospital
Educational and Clinical Supervisor(s) for the placement	Dr H O'Flynn Dr U Bangalore
Main duties of the placement	The postholder's primary responsibility is the day-to-day care of ward patients under the care of the Consultants in his/her team. The incumbent will receive instruction in procedures and help with management from senior colleagues. He/she will be expected to know the patients in detail and to present them on ward rounds.
Employer	Northern Lincolnshire and Goole NHS Foundation Trust
Typical working pattern in this placement	Monday – Friday 09:00 – 17:00 plus out of hours

It is important to note that this description is a typical example of your placement and may be subject to change.