

Foundation Training Job Description

Grade	F2
Placement	Geriatric Medicine
The type of work to expect and learning opportunities	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Participating in and completing clinical tasks generated from ward rounds. - Assessing patients and formulating management plans. - Liaising with members of the multi-disciplinary team about care and discharge planning - Communicating with patients and their families - Supervision is provided by consultants and specialist registrars. The department has an excellent multidisciplinary clinical governance and education programme to which all junior doctors contribute: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Weekly programme of departmental clinical meetings incorporating: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> o Audit meetings o Mortality meetings o X-Ray meetings - University library facilities in the Clinical Sciences Building are available to all trainees.
Where the placement is based	J7, J8, Floor 6, Gledhow Wing, SJUH J14, J15, J17, Floor 8, Gledhow Wing, SJUH J28, J27, Floor 3, Chancellor Wing, SJUH
Educational and Clinical Supervisor(s) for the placement	Dr Gillian Fox, Dr Mark Bradley, Dr Katrina Topp, Dr Steven Parke, Dr Sadia Ismail, Dr Virginia Aylett, Dr Kate Rosenberg
Main Duties of the placement	The trainee on J27 and J28 is responsible for taking histories and examining newly admitted patients, planning their investigations, and carrying out the initial treatment of those patients under supervision. Cases are then presented to the consultant on the consultant ward round. Work on the specialty wards (J7, J8, J14, J15, J17) consists of daily patient reviews and completing tasks arising - with supervision from Consultants and/or registrars. There is also an emphasis on holistic care and communicating early with relatives and carers.
Typical working pattern in this placement	The F2s operate a full shift system, comprising normal days, long days or nights, and covering shifts on the admissions unit.
Employer	Leeds Teaching Hospitals NHS Trust

It is important to note that this description is a typical example of your placement and may be subject to change.