

Foundation Training Job Description

|  |   |
|--|---|
| Grade  | F2  |
| Placement  | Palliative Medicine   |
| The type of work to expect and learning opportunities    | The F2 trainee will work on admission, assessment, management and review of inpatients, this includes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>-Comprehensive assessment including physical disease status</li> <li>-Current symptom problem -Estimation of prognosis</li> <li>-Psychological status -Understanding of the illness</li> <li>-Future expectations and family assessment</li> <li>-Investigating patients as appropriate</li> <li>-Rationalising and modifying medication</li> <li>-Develop and maintain high levels of communication with patient, family and professionals. Attending and positively participating in ward rounds and multi-professional meetings</li> <li>-Completing discharge summaries</li> <li>-Completing death and cremation documentation</li> </ul> -In addition to formal education, there are many opportunities to learn and develop over the duration of this post. -There will be an opportunity to experience palliative and end of life care in the community and hospital setting, in addition to the hospice -The hospice has an up-to-date library on site -The Clinical Teaching and Research Unit (CTRU) manages and delivers educational events |
| Where the placement is based                             | 329 Harrogate Road, Moortown, Leeds, LS17 6QD   |
| Educational and Clinical Supervisor(s) for the placement | Dr M Bennett  |
| Main Duties of the placement                             | The F2 trainee will work alongside one of the consultants and a Registrar or Core Trainee to provide the day-to-day medical work for 16 inpatients. This will include admission and discharge of patients, twice weekly consultant ward rounds and attendance at weekly multidisciplinary meetings.   |
| Typical working pattern in this placement                | 1 in 5 non-resident first on-call, with prospective cover. Responsible for the St Gemma's inpatients (Max 32 patients).   |
| Employer   | Leeds Teaching Hospitals NHS Trust  |

It is important to note that this description is a typical example of your placement and may be subject to change.