

Foundation Training Job Description

Grade	F1
Placement	Trauma and Orthopaedics
Department	Surgery
The type of work to expect and learning opportunities	The post holder will be expected to build on their undergraduate educational training. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • To gain experience and familiarity in dealing with a variety of Trauma and Orthopaedic conditions. • To develop the skills of history taking, physical examination, appropriate investigation and rational prescribing • To master several basic surgical and medical techniques • To improve communication skills with patients, relatives and colleagues • To develop skills in managing time and conflicting priorities.
Where the placement is based	Scarborough Hospital
Educational and Clinical Supervisor(s) for the placement	TBC
Main duties of the placement	The post holder's primary responsibility is the day-to-day care of surgical ward patients under the care of the Consultants in his/her team. The incumbent will receive instruction in procedures and help with management from senior colleagues. He/she will be expected to know the patients in detail and to present them on ward rounds. The duties of the post include examining and writing up out-patient and in-patient emergency cases with responsibility for organising investigation and obtaining blood and samples. The duties also include assisting and performing minor procedures under supervision, with emergency duties.

Typical working pattern in this placement	Participation in a full shift working pattern with FY1 colleagues in General Surgery. Daily handover and participation in ward rounds and the daily management of acute and elective inpatient care.
Employer	York Teaching Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust

It is important to note that this description is a typical example of your placement and may be subject to change.