

Foundation Training Job Description

Grade	F2
Placement	Academic Research
Department	Department of Health Sciences, Hull & York Medical School
The type of work to expect and learning opportunities	Continuation of the PG Certificate course in Health Research and Statistics. In your four month academic placement you will become involved with a research project and will be encouraged to gain experience in producing and delivering a presentation and if possible, achieve publication from this work.
Where the placement is based	York University
Educational and Clinical Supervisor(s) for the placement	TBC
Main duties of the placement	The academic research activity will continue across the year with supervision from HYMS' academic staff. You will develop expertise in conducting research; including literature reviewing, the development of research questions and protocols, data collection and analysis, making contributions to the evidence base.
Typical working pattern in this placement	Monday to Friday 9am – 5pm.
Employer	York Teaching Hospital NHS Foundation Trust

It is important to note that this description is a typical example of your placement and may be subject to change.