

BIRMINGHAM
NEURO-OPHTHALMOLOGY

The Birmingham Efferent Course

Wednesday 11th December 2019

Objective: the aim is to review the physiology and the pathology of eye movements. The course is aimed at ophthalmologists, neurologists and orthoptists of all grades. It will be of value to those preparing for exams or refreshing their neuro-ophthalmology knowledge. The course faculty are recognised experts in this field who will give a comprehensive review and up to date overview of their subjects

Faculty include experts in neuro-ophthalmology, orthoptics, neurology and neuroradiology: Mr Mike Burdon, Mr Tim Matthews, Mr Andrew Jacks, Miss Lidia Alvarez, Mr Richard Blanch, Mr James Benzimra, Miss Claire Hazell and Dr Swarup Chavda

Venue: Everyman Cinema, The Mailbox, Birmingham

Provisional Timetable

From 0830	Registration
0900	Welcome
0900	What is double vision?	Mike Burdon
0930	Causes of double vision and examination of eye movements	Mike Burdon
1000	Double vision – how to get the most from your orthoptic report	Claire Hazell
1030	Coffee
1100	Myasthenia Gravis	Lidia Alvarez
1130	Brainstem control of eye movements	Tim Matthews
1200	Lunch
1245	Supranuclear Disorders of eye movements	Tim Matthews
1330	W5 of neuro-imaging – Swarup Chavda	Swarup Chavda
1400	Infranuclear Oculomotility disorders	Richard Blanch and Swarup Chavda
1445	Tea
1515	Surgical management of double vision	Andrew Jacks
1600	Nystagmus	James Benzimra
1630	Questions and Close

BIRMINGHAM
NEURO-OPHTHALMOLOGY

The Birmingham Afferent Course
Wednesday 8th January 2020

Objective: the aim is to review the physiology and the pathology of optic nerve disorders. The course is aimed at ophthalmologists, neurologists and orthoptists of all grades. It will be of value to those preparing for exams or refreshing their neuro-ophthalmology knowledge. The course faculty are recognised experts in this field who will give a comprehensive review and up to date overview of their subjects

Faculty include experts in neuro-ophthalmology, neurology and neuroradiology:

Mr Tim Matthews, Mr Richard Blanch, Mr Mike Burdon, Miss Lidia Alvarez, Mr Andrew Jacks, Professor Alexandra Sinclair, Dr Swarup Chavda, Dr Gordon Mazibrada and Miss Ruchika Batra

Venue: Everyman Cinema, The Mailbox, Birmingham

Provisional Timetable

From 08:30	Registration
09:00	Welcome
09:10	“Doctor...I can’t see”	Ruchika Batra
09:30	An approach to disc swelling	Mike Burdon
10:00	Approaching optic neuropathies	Tim Matthews
10:45	Coffee
11:15	Ischaemic optic neuropathies	Richard Blanch
11:45	W5 of neuro-imaging (Who, What, When, Where, & Why)	Swarup Chavda
12:30	Lunch
13:15	Inherited optic neuropathies	Lidia Alvarez
13:45	Optic Neuritis and Multiple Sclerosis Update	Tim Matthews Gordon Mazibrada
14:30	Neuromyelitis optica spectrum disorder	Andrew Jacks
15:00	Tea
15:30	Headaches for Ophthalmologists	Prof Alexandra Sinclair
16:00	Functional Visual Loss	Tim Matthews
16:45	Questions and close

BIRMINGHAM
NEURO-OPHTHALMOLOGY

To register please visit:

<https://www.hospitalcharity.org/shop/product/neuro-ophthalmology-course>

The Birmingham Efferent Course (Wednesday 11th December 2019)

1. Consultants and non-consultant grade doctors £180
2. Healthcare professional (Nursing/orthoptists etc) £120
3. Trainee £120

The Birmingham Afferent Course (Wednesday 8th January, 2020)

1. Consultants and non-consultant grade doctors £180
2. Other Healthcare professional (Nursing/orthoptists etc) £120
3. Trainee £120

Discounted rate for Afferent and Efferent combined booking

1. Consultants and non-consultant grade doctors £320
2. Other Healthcare professional (Nursing/orthoptists etc) £200
3. Trainee £200

If you require further information, or have any specific dietary requirements or allergies then please email: Ruchika.batra@uhb.nhs.uk

