

Foundation Training Job Description

Grade	F2
Placement
Department	ENT
The type of work to expect and learning opportunities	Ward work including attending ward round and caring for inpatients, discussions with relatives, prescribing medications, completing paperwork such as discharge letters. Oncall commitments, assessing and treating patients that present to the emergency department with acute ENT conditions. Participation in research and audit. Teaching opportunities including training in the operating theatre and outpatient clinics.
Where the placement is based	LGI
Educational and Clinical Supervisor(s) for the placement	TBC

Main duties of the placement	Attending daily ward round. Managing acute and post operative patients on the ward. Covering the oncall both day and night, including weekends, with non-resident senior cover.
Typical working pattern in this placement	1:8 oncall commitments
Employer	Leeds Teaching Hospitals NHS Trust

It is important to note that this description is a typical example of your placement and may be subject to change.