

Person Specification
Foundation General Practice Programme Advisor (FGPPA)

Criteria Essential Desirable

Qualifications	Bachelors level degree or equivalent	Higher degree Postgraduate certificate or diploma in medical education
Skills/Training Knowledge of current educational theory and practice, and ability to maintain an up-to-date awareness of relevant issues.	Interest in maintaining up to date General Practice (GP) skills and knowledge of local and national issues relating to GP standards of medical and multidisciplinary education. Knowledge of the foundation programme curriculum and foundation programme reference guide with respect to GP training	Previous supervision of Foundation GPc trainees. Present or past TDP role (e.g. senior lecturer) Involvement in GP or medical education research. Involvement in the coordination and delivery of Foundation School or GPS teaching and training.
Personal Attributes	Ability to lead small and large group discussions. Ability to chair meetings. Ability to lead and plan strategically. Ability to develop and maintain networks and relationships with other professionals at all levels. Excellent communication and negotiation skills.	Previous track record in delivering change.