

Initial Resource Guide for ACCS CT1&2 and CAT1 Trainees

This is not an exhaustive guide but designed as an intentionally succinct signposting to get you started on your journey. There is a massive amount of stuff out there which you can investigate at your leisure.

ACCS CT1 Trainees

ACCS Website

<https://www.accs.ac.uk/>

This is a much improved and relatively succinct site containing a great deal of useful information. At a bare minimum - have a look at the 'Training Guidance' and 'Assessment' tabs along with the links below. You will undoubtedly come back to this web page once you have started and have more questions and things crystalise in your understanding.

Resources Page

Videos: Curriculum Q&A Session Recording - 15 November 2021. N.B. covers multiple portfolios (i.e., EM/IM/AN) so skip the irrelevant ones.
