

Job Description

Deputy Training Programme Director – Obstetrics & Gynaecology (East)

Summary of Role and Responsibilities

The role of Deputy Training Programme Director is to work with and support the Training Programme Director and Head of School in leading the delivery of a wide range of functions, aligned to the Health Education England mandate.

The Deputy Training Programme Director is professionally and managerially accountable to the Head of School. The Deputy Training Programme Director will focus upon improvement of learner supervision, assessment and experience, engagement of faculty and ensuring effective educational outcomes, both now and in the future. The role is evolving and will also focus on whole workforce transformation and developing multi-professional links.

To support the Postgraduate Dean, Training Programme Directors will work across the spectrum of health and where relevant, social care, within the context of a team, so that the provision of education reflects changing service models. This will deliver an integrated workforce comprising individuals from a spectrum of professional and other backgrounds.

Duration: 3 years (renewable under some circumstances, subject to approval of the Postgraduate Dean and Head of School)

Sessions/Grade: 0.75PA

Key Areas of Responsibility

Leadership

To work with the Head of School:

- To provide effective clinical leadership, contributing to the strategic development of HEE.
- To contribute to the vision of the local NHS and to enhance patient care by providing leadership and direction with respect to the quality of education and training.
- To be an advocate and a positive role model on behalf of HEE, by promoting leadership that inspires, motivates and empowers all staff, and demonstrating the values of the NHS.
- To work on behalf of HEE, providing expert advice on specialty specific matters.
- To work locally with key groups and stakeholders, to attend and host events across the regions, to develop key liaisons and to ensure effective local engagement and responsiveness in line with the culture of HEE.

- To review how multi-professional healthcare teams interact and identify opportunities for different healthcare professions to work more effectively together through education and training.
- To work with providers and others to support and capture innovation locally and ensure national and local conversations develop 'best practice'.

Corporate Leadership

- To support delivery of the specialty specific aspects of the HEE mandate through local initiatives and programmes.

Involvement in Programmes and Projects

- To support work programmes on behalf of HEE that support local and national developments and initiatives.
