

Foundation Training Academic Placement Job Description

| | |
|--|---|
| Grade | F2 |
| Placement | ACADEMIC PUBLIC HEALTH (GLOBAL) |
| Department | Health Sciences In this placement, the department will offer projects under following topics: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Commercial determinants of health • Tobacco control • Second-hand smoke exposure and health • Non-cigarette forms of tobacco • Smoking cessation |
| The type of work to expect and learning opportunities | Research methods used in population health including epidemiology, randomised controlled trials, behaviour change, complex intervention development, secondary data analyses and systematic reviews. |
| Where the placement is based | Seebohm Rowntree Building, University of York, Heslington, York YO10 5DD |
| Educational and Clinical Supervisor(s) for the placement | Professor Kamran Siddiqi Dr Noreen Mdege Dr Omara Dogar Dr Mona Kanaan |
| Main duties of the placement | The post holder will carry out or take part in existing research projects within the department. |
| Typical working pattern in this placement | This will depend on the nature of the project but is likely to involve literature review, data analysis, academic writing and presentations. |
| Employer | The University of York |

It is important to note that this description is a typical example of your placement and may be subject to change.