

59th St Andrew's Day Festival Symposium: Updates On Acute Medicine

Thursday 28 November – Friday 29 November 2019

 #rcpeStAs19

LIVE STREAM
TO MANCHESTER

Thursday 28

Session 1: Working as a team: trainers, trainees and patients

- Shared decision making
- Understanding the 'human' factor

Session 2: How do I manage?

- Pyrexia of unknown origin
- The acutely jaundiced patient
- How do I manage anticoagulation

Session 3: Risk and conflict

- Resolving conflict in healthcare
- Sir James Cameron Lecture
The public understanding of risk by Dr Sander van der Linden, Cambridge

Session 4: What can I do better in my day job?

- Acute kidney injury
- Pulmonary emboli
- A good death

Friday 29

Session 1: How I manage...

- Paracetamol overdose: new test, new thinking
- Skin failure
- Oncology patients at the front door

Session 2: Threats and Challenges

- How to prepare for the next pandemic
- Under pressure: managing the acute take during a major incident

Session 3: Keeping up with the times

- Wearables in medicine
- Exercise and health

Session 4: Am I doing it right?

- Tachyarrhythmias
- Acute heart failure
- Medically unexplained symptoms

All grades of medical, nursing, scientific staff, allied health professionals and medical students are most welcome.

An early bird discount will be available until 30 October 2019.

For further details and to book online: events.rcpe.ac.uk

Or from: Eileen Strawn, Symposium Coordinator
Tel: +44 (0)131 247 3619 | Email: e.strawn@rcpe.ac.uk

CPD 10
Credits